Highlights from 6th ASG Tenant's Meeting

The 6th Army Support Group Tenants meeting was held Aug. 1 at the Kelley Community Club. Some of the items discussed during the meeting were the current road repair by buildings 2949, 2962 and 2963 at Panzer Kaserne; the Kelley Club providing lunch and fast food for Kelley Barracks during the month of August and the hectic summer moving season. The Directorate of Logistics sent out a memorandum reminding service members to be flexible with their moving dates and aware their movers may work late into the evening to ensure the move is complete. During the summer months movers can work until 7 p.m.

Force Protection Advice

The U.S. European Command Office of the Special Assistant for Security Matters recommends U. S. citizens planning a trip visit the Department of State homepage at www.state.gov. An especially useful link provided by the State Department is www.travel.state.gov. This link takes you to the travel warnings, consular information sheets and public announcements page. This site provides information about crime, medical facilities and insurance, customs and other country-specific topics.

Monthly Tenant's Meeting Scheduled

The next Tenant's Meeting will be held Sept. 5, 9 a.m. in the Kelley Community Club, Kelley Barracks. For info call 421-2041/civ. 0711-729-2041.

Black Berets Delayed

The Army's black berets are not expected to arrive in USAREUR units until next spring, due to contractual difficulties. Previously expected to arrive in late September-early October, the new headgear is projected for arrival and distribution in April 2002. The Department of the Army notified USAREUR officials recently that fielding of the berets in Europe has been delayed due to contractual difficulties. "We are ready to join the rest of our Army and begin wearing this distinctive headgear," said Col. Carl Kropf, U.S. Army Europe public affairs officer. "Updates on the fielding and distribution to USAREUR will be provided as we receive them."

Kelley Barracks Parents Be Aware

Due to the joint exercise on Kelley Barracks, razor wire will be put up around certain areas. Parents are asked to keep children away from buildings 3304, 3305, 3306, 3309, 3312 (in front of the Shoppette and behind the bank/community club area), 3322 and 3356 (across from the Shoppette), until the end of August. During the exercise, there will also be minimal parking in many areas throughout the post. For more info call 421-2322/civ. 0711-729-2322.

Military Police Ball

The annual Military Police Ball takes place Sept. 22, 5:45 p.m. at the Village Pavilion in Heidelberg. The event is open to all members and friends of the MP family. The cost is $35 per person. Attire for the evening is mess blue, Army blues or greens with black bow tie for military personnel and formal attire for civilians. For more info call Joel Johnson at 381-8172 or e-mail at Joel.Johnson@manupo.pmo.army.mil.

Baycol Drug Recalled by FDA

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration announced Aug. 8 that Bayer Pharmaceutical Division is voluntarily withdrawing the cholesterol-lowering medication Baycol from the U.S. market because of reports of a sometimes fatal side effect called rhabdomyolysis, a severe adverse reaction involving muscle tissue.

Europe Regional Medical Command officials are urging all patients using Baycol to return the medication to their local pharmacy and exchange it for another cholesterol-lowering drug. Baycol is also known by Lipobay in Germany and by the U.S. generic name, cerivastatin.

MWR Seeking Actors & Techs

There's no business like show business, even if your main business is being a soldier. The Army Morale, Welfare and Recreation Entertainment Division is recruiting soldiers for the cast and crew of BRAVO!, The Army Theatre Touring Company. The all-soldier theater troupe brings live theater to soldiers, their families and military communities all over the world.

All active duty and reserve component soldiers are eligible to apply for three male acting parts and two technical jobs. Applicants must have their commanders' approval for a 179-day temporary duty assignment. Application deadline is Aug. 31. The theater production is scheduled to tour between November 2001 and March 2002. Soldiers need to submit an audition tape in addition to other paperwork. For more info e-mail at tim.higdon@cfsc.army.mil.

Seminars Discuss New GS-2200

The Department of Army, Information Technology Management Career Program Manager will be traveling throughout USAREUR the week of Aug. 20 through 24, conducting a series of seminars discussing the new Job Family

Position Classification Standard for Administrative Work in the Information Technology Group, GS-2200. This new job family establishes the Information Technology Management Series, GS-2210, and abolishes the Computer Specialist Series, GS-0334.

The seminar includes a briefing by the DA Career Program Manager and a question and answer session. All GS-0334 Computer Specialists and GS-301-I Information Management Specialists are encouraged to attend. Registration is available online. For more info and to register go to www.dcsim.hqusareur.army.mil/topics/itm/ or call Mr. Miller at 370-7070.

Report Suspected Espionage Incidents

Community members can help prevent subversion and espionage by guarding against the collection efforts of foreign intelligence services.

Watch for someone who seeks information about military missions, activities, equipment, facilities or personnel through unsolicited letters or e-mail. Report it to the Stuttgart Military Intelligence Office, 421-2206/civ. 0711-729-2206.

SECTION II ANNOUNCEMENTS

Soccer Coaches Course

USAREUR Youth Services is sponsoring a United States Soccer Federation "D" License Course for soccer coaches Aug. 22 through 26, Tompkins Fitness Center, Heidelberg/Schwetzingen. The course begins Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. and runs Thursday through Sunday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Active-duty are eligible for permissive TDY. Earn a State "E", a State "D", or a National "D" License. For more info contact Paul La Bella 379-7700/civ. 06202-80-7700 or e-mail at labellap @26asg.heidelberg.army.mil.

Town Hall Meeting Rescheduled

The 6th Area Support Group Community Town Hall meeting has been rescheduled from Aug. 22 to Sept. 26, 7 p.m. at the Kelley Community Club.

School Bus Safety is Important

With the start of the school year on Aug. 27, it's a good time to review driving regulations for school buses. Drivers are required to stop when passengers are getting on or off school buses on U.S. forces-controlled property, regardless of whether they are following or approaching the school bus. Motorists failing to stop will be cited and assessed traffic points by the military police.

The start of the school year means renewed congestion at the top of Illinois Strasse (Power Zone end) in the mornings, as students are dropped off, and afternoons, as students are picked up. Motorists are encouraged to use alternate routes during these busy times.

Shape Up with Step Circuit Training

Step Circuit Training is offered Mondays through Thursdays 6 to 7:10 p.m. in Kelley Fitness Center. This total body workout, offered by a certified instructor, combines aerobic exercise and strength training with weights and resistance tubes. Complimentary first class. For more info call Christine Charles, 0711-457-0835.

PWOC Kick-off

Protestant Women of the Chapel's Kick-off will be Aug. 30, 9 a.m. at Patch Chapel. Child care will be provided. For more info contact Martha Campbell at mpwoc@hotmail.com.

New Phone Switches at Patch & Kelley

Installation of new digital telephone switches will soon be completed and cutover for Kelley and Patch Barracks. The cutovers are Oct. 12 for Kelley and Nov. 2 for Patch.

Due to the impending replacement of the telephone systems, the telephone switch databases which collect/track telephone changes have been "frozen" in preparation for the cutover. Until then, telephone changes must be manually tracked and then re-entered into the new management database system. Telephone service requests for the two installations will be placed on hold. This only effects new installations, changes and terminations of phone service.

Emergency work-orders will continue being processed. All 119 repair calls will be handled as usual. For more info call 421-4412/civ. 0711-729-4412.

Fall Craft Bazaar Vendors Wanted

The Stuttgart Community Fall Bazaar is currently accepting table reservations for its upcoming bazaar. The tentative dates are Oct. 27 and 28, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Set-up will be Saturday morning from 8 to 10 a.m. There will be a $5 charge for each 6 to 8 foot table, plus 10 percent of gross sales. All profits will cover bazaar expenses and go back into the Stuttgart community craft facilities. Interested vendors should contact Laura Bochman at 0711-680-5270 or e-mail at dlbochmann@yahoo.com.

24-Hour Marathon

The 24-Hour Marathon kicks-off Sept. 21 and 22, Husky Field at Patch Barracks. This annual event directly benefits the Stuttgart military community's youth activities. Teams and individuals can run or walk in the event for donations. Featured are a fest tent with food and beverages, live entertainment provided by some of the best performers in the Stuttgart area and much more. Come out and support community youth and make this year's event the best ever! For more info contact your agency representative or Lt. Col. Smyser at 430-4133/civ. 0711-680-4133.

Summer Jam in Stuttgart
